

YWCA ASPIRE

Connecting newcomer refugee women to meaningful work experience

YWCA Aspire is a free employment program that assists newcomer refugee women in labour market preparedness to jump-start a meaningful career in Canada.

The program offers 6 weeks of employment readiness workshops, 2 weeks of job development, and 12 weeks of follow-up and support.

Participants must be: a Permanent Resident or Protected Person who has been granted refugee status in Canada and not a Canadian Citizen.

To learn more and register, visit: ywcavan.org/aspire aspire@ywcavan.org | 778 222 0482

Funded by:

Immigration, Refugees
and Citizenship Canada

Financé par :

Immigration, Réfugiés
et Citoyenneté Canada

