Day of The Dead

01-02
November

The multi-day holiday involves family and friends gathering to pay respects and remember friends and family members who have died. It is widely observed by people of Mexican heritage.

Diwali

For people of Indian heritage in Canada, along with many other Canadians, Diwali is celebrated from late October–mid-November symbolizing the spiritual victory of light over darkness, good over evil, and knowledge over ignorance.

Late Oct
- Mid Nov

Remembrance Day

11 November
11am

LEST WE FORGET - Annual ceremonies at Cenotaph in Douglas Park and Fort Langley

Holodomor Memorial Day

Canada, Ukraine and the world commemorate Holodomor Memorial Day. Last year, was the 90th anniversary of the Holodomor Famine-Genocide of 1932-33. Remember and honour the millions of victims of the Holodomor (death by starvation inflicted on Ukrainians in an attempt to destroy the nation, the Communist regime turned food into a weapon. All grain and food was confiscated).
